One of the teachers of the Law of Moses came up while Jesus and the Sadducees were arguing. When he heard Jesus give a good answer, he asked him, "What is the most important commandment?"

Jesus answered, "The most important one says: 'People of Israel, you have only one Lord and God. You must love him with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength.' The second most important commandment says: 'Love others as much as you love yourself.' No other commandment is more important than these."

The man replied, "Teacher, you are certainly right to say there is only one God. It is also true that we must love God with all our heart, mind, and strength, and that we must love others as much as we love ourselves. These commandments are more important than all the sacrifices and offerings that we could possibly make." When Jesus saw that the man had given a sensible answer, he told him, "You are not far from God's kingdom." After this, no one dared ask Jesus any more questions. Mark 12:28-34 (CEV)

It is the most important commandment. Jesus even said it himself. There is nothing we can do that is more important than this.

But what does that really mean? How do we actually love God with all of our heart, our soul, our mind and our strength?

Join us as we discuss this at the Winter Retreat. It will be a time away to relax, reconnect, a time of spiritual renewal and just rest. But it will also be a time to help us get to know Christ and ourselves just a little bit better and dive into this story and explore all that it means.
